

Stephan J. Chevalier

Steve is the Director of Fiscal Planning and a corporate officer of Zilber Ltd. & Subsidiaries, a group of privately held companies with interests in real estate development and finance. The Zilber group has operations in seven states and is headquartered in Milwaukee.

Steve is also responsible for tax and financial planning, property management, and trust and investment services for the Zilber companies and the Zilber family.

He has been with the Zilber organization since 1978. Prior to that, he was a Tax Manager for Deloitte Haskins and Sells (now Deloitte & Touche LLP), where he spent the first seven years of his career.

Steve graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee in 1971 with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration (Accounting). He earned his Master's Degree in Taxation from the same institution in 1988. He is currently a member and Past President of the Tax Executives Institute-Wisconsin Chapter and a member of the AICPA, WICPA, and the Rotary Club of Milwaukee. He serves on the Boards of Directors of Zilber Ltd. and Affiliates, iTeam Companies, Inc., Advantage Leasing Corporation, the Joseph and Vera Zilber Family Foundation, Inc., and the World Affairs Seminar.

Steve is a volunteer in the St. Francis Children's Center Annual Awards Banquets, United Way, the Rotary Club of Milwaukee, and the World Affairs Seminar.
